Madrid, Octob. 23. N. S.

THE King of Spain continues at the Escurial, where he enjoys a perfect Health; It's said at Court, that the Queen of Spain is with Child; Their Majesties return to this City remains fixed for the 2d of the next Month. The Prince of Bergh, who came hither some time ago from Brussels, took his Leave of the King yesterday, and set out from hence this morning, on his return to Flanders. A Sum of 20000 Pistoles was sent this week to the Prince of Hesse-Darmstadt Vice-Roy of Catalonia, to Pay the Troops in that Province. The King has Declared the Cardinal de Giudice Protector of the Affairs of Sicily at the Court of Rome, in the room of Cardinal d'Aguirre deceased. The Duke of Medina-Celi is made Counsellor of State. The Government of Malaga is given to Don Fernando de Argote. Don Bernandino de Pinedas Secretary to the Council of War, died some days ago. We have received an Account of the Duke of Uceda's arrival at Barcelona, where his Excellency and his Family would embark on board two Galleys of the Duke of Tursis's Squadron, in order to proceed on his Embassy to Rome. The French Ambassador is returned hither from Morata near Toledo, where he has been splendidly entertained by the Marquis of Leganez. They write from Ceuta, that the Moors continue still the Siege of that place, notwithstanding the ill Success they have hitherto had in this Undertaking.

Turin, Octob. 31. The French Ambassador is returned from Nice, where he has been to view some Lands in Dispute between the Duke of Savoy and the Prince of Monaco, in order to give an Account thereof to the King his Master, whose Mediation is accepted by both Parties for the adjusting of this Affair. The Baron of Guidebon is arrived here with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, and had Audience of the Duke of Savoy on the 22d Instant; And on the 26th his Royal Highness gave Audience of Leave to the Count of Porro, whom the King of Spain sent with the Character of his Envoy Extraordinary, to Compliment him on the Birth of the Prince of Piedmont. The Count of St. Thomas, First Minister of State to the Duke of Savoy, is dangerously ill.

Warsaw, Nov. 4. The Cardinal Primate returned hither this week from Lowitz, as the Bishop of Posnania, the Sieur Sezuca Vice-Chancellor of Lithuania, and divers other Senators likewise did from the Country; And they have since begun their Conferences with the Baron d'Overbeck and Monsieur Werner, Deputies from the Elector of Brandenburgh, in order to finish the Treaty for accommodating the Business of Elbing; To which end it's said, the Deputies of Brandenburgh have made some new Proposals. The Crown-General continues still at Caminiec, and has given the Necessary Orders for the marching of the Forces under his Command to their Winter-Quarters, and for the providing of Caminiec with Artillery, Ammunition, and other Necessaries. Prince Constantine, one of the Sons of the late King of Poland, is now in Silesia with Prince James his Brother, and intends to go from thence to Dresden, and after a short stay there, will continue his Journey to Rome, to which Place he is going to pay a Visit to the Queen-Dowager, and to be present at the Jubilee.

Vienna, Nov. 7. The Emperor has demanded of the States of Hungary a Subsidy of 4 Millions of Livers, and that they provide besides Subsistence for the Imperial Regiments which are quartered at present in that Kingdom. The Meeting of the Imperial and Turkish Ambassadors on the Frontiers, is regulated in the following manner; Count Guido of Staremberg, Commander in Chief of the Imperial Forces in those Parts, is to receive the Turkish Ambassador near Salankement at the Head of 500 Horse; The Seraskier of Belgrade is in like manner to receive Count Otting, the Imperial Ambassador, at the Head of the same number of Spahi's; and after having met and passed the proper Compliments, the Commissioners appointed on both sides are to conduct the Ambassadors on their Journeys, and defray their Expences. A Placaet was published this week, to give notice that the Chamber of Accounts are willing to receive the Proposals of any Persons that will undertake to furnish the Magazines of Vienna, Raab, and Comorra, with Ammunition and Provisions. Orders are sent likewise to the Commanders of the Imperial Troops in Hungary and Transilvania, to take care that the Magazines in those Provinces be well stored with Ammunition; And to hasten the Building of the new Fortifications near Arad, the Winter Season coming on, which will oblige the Troops that are employed therein, to discontinue that Work. Our Letters from Belgrade give an Account, that the Turkish Ambassador's Baggage was arrived there, and that he was expected in few days.

Francfort, Nov. 14. Monsieur Mullern, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sueden, left this Place on the 11th Instant, in order to go to Nancy to compliment the Duke and Dutchess of Lorrain in the Name of the King his Master on the Birth of their Son. The Elector Palatine's Forces continue to work with great diligence in rebuilding the Fortifications of Manheim, and a great number of Workmen are likewise employed in repairing the Castle of Hydelberg, that it may be ready by the next Spring for the reception of his Electoral Highness, who intends to make it the Place of his constant Residence, and has given Orders to the Courts of Justice of the Palatinate, which are now kept at Weynheim, to remove thither next March. Our Letters from Switzerland say, the Dutchess of Nemours had, at the Most Christian King's Desire, displaced Monsieur Mannin, who Commanded at Neuf-Chatel, and given the Government of that Place to one Monsieur Molondin.

Cologne, Nov 17. The Elector Palatine having stayed three days at Coblentz, where he and his whole
